HENRY LUFF, 93, of 670 North Main St., owner of RO-JO Trailer Equipment Co., died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Dorothy (Shaulson) Luff and Esther (Rabinow) Luff.

Born in Boston, a son of the late Abraham and Anna (Yankelson) Luff, he lived in Providence for 66 years.

He founded RO-JO Trailer Equipment Co. in 1942 and continued working there until illness recently forced him to retire.

Mr. Luff was a former member of Congregation Sons of Zion and Mishkon T'Filoh.

He leaves a son, Samuel Luff in Florida; two grandchildren and a great-granddaughter. He was the brother of the late Gabriel Luff, Mildred Goldman, Amy Orent Phillips and Bess Bernstein.

A graveside service will be held today at 1:30 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
