Rose Luftman

EAST PROVIDENCE — Rose Luftman of 33 Arthur Ave., a former legal secretary, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the wife of Benjamin Luftman.

Born in Poland, she was a daughter of the late Aaron and Deborah Karpman. She lived in Montreal, Canada for many years before moving to the United States 48 years ago. She lived in East Providence for 20 years, and previously had lived in Providence for 12 years and in Oak Park, Mich., and Boston.

Mrs. Luftman was employed by the Rhode Island Attorney General's office, and in the law offices of the late Walter Sundlun, and Tillinghast Collins and Graham.

She was a member of Temple Emanuel and had served as chairwoman of the Sunshine Committee for 23 years, co-chairwoman of the Torah Fund, was a former treasurer and vice president of the Sisterhood, and member of the Art Committee.

She was a board member, life member and volunteer at the Jewish Home for the Aged. Mrs. Luftman was a member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association, Hadassah, the Cranston Senior Guild and the Majestic Senior Guild.

During World War II, she volunteered as a Red Cross nurse in Montreal. She was also a Girl Scout and Brownie leader.

Mrs. Luftman was a certified Braille instructor for many years.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Rhonda Altman of New Fairfield, Conn.; two sons, Dr. Richard Luftman of Longmeadow, Mass., and Dr. Martin Luftman of Lexington, Ky.; two brothers, Harry and Mike Karpman, and two sisters, Anne Kerner and Reva Regenstreif, all of Montreal; and eight grandchildren.

The funeral service will be Friday at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Pride of Jacob Cemetery, West Roxbury, Mass. ✓
