Practicing Attorney For 50 Years Dies

Ira Allen Marcus, 78, a practicing Rhode Island attorney for more than 50 years, died yesterday in South County Hospital, Wakefield.

Mr. Marcus, a former Providence resident, had lived at 100 Galilee Rd., Point Judith, about 30 years. He was the husband of Evelyn (Howes) Marcus.

He was a 1914 graduate of Brown University. Two years later he earned his law degree at Boston University Law School. During World War I he served in the Adjutant General's Corps of the Army.

Mr. Marcus was a member of the Rhode Island Bar Association. His law office was at 58 Weybosset St.

He was born June, 20, 1893, in Minnesota, a son of the late Julius and Anna D. (Finkel) Marcus.

Besides his wife, survivors include a son, Donald H. Johnson of Nashua, N.H., two grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be private.

MARCUS, IRA
