Naomi F. Marcus

Was retired co-founder, official of the Rhode Island Glass Works

TAMARAC, Fla. — Naomi F. Marcus of 7581 Northwest 86th Terrace, formerly of Providence, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the wife of Morris Marcus.

She and her husband founded Rhode Island Glass Works, Inc., of Providence 35 years ago. She was secretary-treasurer of the glass works until they sold the business and retired in 1976.

She was a life member of Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood and a member of the temple until moving to Florida three years ago. She was a former member of the Crestwood Country Club, Rehoboth, Mass.; was a current member of the Ladies Association of B'nai B'rith and the Brandeis University Women's Association.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Abraham and Etta (Levine) White.

Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Kass of Barrington; two sisters, Mrs. Sylvia Yoken of Fall River and Mrs. Miriam Kagan of Pembroke, Fla.; a brother, Leonard White of Hollywood, Fla.; and three grandsons.

The funeral service will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

MARCUS, NAOMI F.