career in disappoint...

ALEXANDER MARGOLIN

PROVIDENCE — Alexander Margolin, 25, of Herschel Street died Tuesday, February 21, 1990, from a gunshot wound to the back of the head. He was the husband of Esther (Doitch) Margolin.

Born in Russia, a son of Joseph and Nellie (Suslovich) Margolin in Israel, he lived in Providence for three years, previously living in Israel.

He was the owner of Mr. Donut, Branch Avenue, for two years.

He was a member of the Providence Hebrew Day School and he attended Community College of Rhode Island.

Besides his wife and parents, he leaves a brother, Gideon Margolin of Israel.

MARGOLIN, ALEXANDER

PJ-B 2-21-90

and of enduring values ...
led in each holiday and its observance. As an example, we