MARKOFF, BURTON

PJB 10-5-02

Cranston

BURTON MARKOFF, 73, of Sachem Drive, a retired sales manager and former business owner, died yesterday in Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Roslyn (Falcofsky) Markoff. Born in Providence, a son of the late Allen and Lillian (Bachman) Markoff, he had lived in Pawtucket for 20 years before moving to Cranston two years ago.

Mr. Markoff was the owner of a retail jewelry company for 13 years, retiring in 2000. He had been the sales manager in the lamp and lighting division of the Carol Cable Co. He had been the owner of the former Super Products Co.

He was a graduate of Providence Country Day School and Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., Class of 1952. He was a member of the Northwestern football team.

He was a member and past board member of Temple Beth-El, Providence, and past president of its Brotherhood. He was a member of the Rhode Island Jewish Historical Society.

He enjoyed golfing, and was a sports fan.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Caryn O'Connor of Peace Dale, Nancy Chodak of Pittsford, N.Y., and Susan Markoff of Pawtucket; a brother, Arthur Markoff of Wyndham, N.H.; and four grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.
