SYDNEY W. MARKOFF, 90, of Iris Drive, an engineering consultant, died yesterday at Roger Williams Medical Center, Providence.

He was the husband of the late Yvette (Marcuvitz) Markoff and the companion of Beatrice Sutton. Born in New York, a son of the late Walter and Rebecca (Gelula) Markoff, he moved to Cranston in 1945, previously living in New York and Providence.

An engineering consultant, he had previously worked as an independent structural engineer for various companies in Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

He was a graduate of New York University, where he received a degree in civil engineering. He worked with the Civilian Conservation Corps and with the Army Corps of Engineers for several years in the late 1930s.

He was a member of the Masons Redwood Lodge, and he enjoyed traveling.

Besides his companion, he leaves a son, Robert D. Markoff of Edison, N.J.; a daughter, Beth Markoff Butterworth of Wellesley, Mass.; a brother, Henry Markoff of Providence; and four grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Jeanette Farber.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
