MARKOVITZ, Edys

PJ 11-17-2001

EDYS (TEPER) MARKOVITZ, 83, formerly of Taber Avenue, a retired administrative assistant, died yesterday at Epoch on Blackstone Boulevard.

She was the wife of the late Samuel Markovitz. Born in Ukraine, a daughter of the late Abraham and Sheiva Teper, she moved to Montreal when she was 6, and had lived in Providence since 1946.

She worked in the theater department of Brown University, and had been an administrative assistant at Providence Hebrew Day School.

Mrs. Markovitz was a member of Temple Emanu-El and one of its Havurah groups, and the Jewish Community Center of Rhode Island, where she taught a class in conversational Yiddish.

She was also a member of the Rhode Island School of Design Museum and the Museum of Natural History, New York City.

She leaves a daughter, Deborah Kidder of Seattle; two sons, Morry Markovitz of New York City and Aaron Markovitz of Denver; and a grandchild. She was the sister of the late Sarah Markowitz.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
