Morris S. Markowitz

EAST PROVIDENCE — Morris S. Markowitz, 90, of 300 E. Shore Circle died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Rose M. (Foster) Markowitz.

Born in Passaic, N.J., a son of the late Pincus and Lena (Weiner) Markowitz, he lived in East Providence since 1937. He previously lived in Providence for 38 years.

For more than 22 years, he had been an insurance agent for the Equitable Life Assurance Society and retired in 1972.

For 25 years through 1950, he had been owner of the former Walter's, a 5¢ to $1.00 store, which had been at Six Corners on Taunton Avenue. He was a member and a past grand chancellor of the Kinghts of Pythias, What Cheer Lodge 24. He was a member of Redwood Lodge, F and AM. He was a member of Congregation Shaare Zedek-Sons of Abraham and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Lenore A. Schwartz of Randolph, N.J.; two brothers, Joseph Markowitz of East Providence and Edward P. Brown of Garden Grove, Calif.; three grandsons and six great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

PJ-6 11-23-88

MARKOWITZ, MORRIS S.