PJ-B 1/27/90

Charles Marks

Proprietor of the former Marks Department Store

WARREN — Charles Marks, 92, of 806 Main St., proprietor of the former Marks Department Store from 1942 to 1963, died at the Silver Creek Manor senior citizens complex in Bristol yesterday. He was the husband of Mrs. Elizabeth (Marder) Marks.

A lifelong resident of Warren, he was the son of the late Nathan and Eva (Makowski) Marks.

Mr. Marks' store, at the corner of Miller and Water Streets, was founded by his father in 1894.

He was a member of United Brothers Synogogue of Bristol and the United Brothers Lodge, IOOF, of Bristol. Mr. Marks was a member of Washington Lodge No. 3, F.&A.M., for more than 60 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Morton J. Marks of Providence and Taunton, Mass., and Dr. Alan N. Marks of Waban, Mass.; three brothers, Milton and Irving Marks, both of Pawtucket, and Raymond Marks of Central Falls; 5 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

PJ-B 1/27/90

MARKS, CHARLES