Florence Marks

EAST PROVIDENCE — Florence Marks, 84, of the Evergreen House Health Center, 1 Evergreen Drive, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of Raymond Marks.

Born in Fall River, Mass., she was a daughter of the late Michael and Katie (Levy) Bakst. She was raised in Fall River, and later lived in Central Falls, R.I., for many years before moving to Providence in 1991. She moved into the Evergreen House Health Center three weeks ago.

Mrs. Marks was a former president of the Sisterhood, Congregation Ohawe Shalom, Pawtucket. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. She attended business school, and was previously employed in the office of the former Cherry Webb store in Fall River, Mass.

Besides her husband she leaves seven nephews, M. Charles Bakst of Barrington, government affairs editor at the Journal-Bulletin, Arthur Bakst of Barrington, Dr. Eric Marks of Rockville, Md., Ira Marks of Vienna, Va., Dr. Leon Marks of Brookline, Mass., Morton Marks of Providence, and Evan Brown of Boca Raton, Fla.; and four nieces, Margery Kelly, Andrea Nissenbaum and Maureen Nissenbaum, all of Chestnut Hill, Mass., and Elaine Josephson of Parlin, N.J. She was the sister of the late Lester Bakst, Hazel Bakst, Dorothy Feldman and Tillie Garr.

A graveside funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Fall River.
