Dr. Herman Marks; retired pediatrician

MARKS, Dr. Herman

PROVIDENCE — Dr. Herman B. Marks, 83, of 50 Alfred Stone Rd., a pediatrician for 55 years before retiring in December, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Mildred (Sydney) Marks.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late John and Annie (Braun) Marks.

Dr. Marks was a 1930 graduate of Brown University, and a 1934 graduate of Tufts Medical School. He was a Navy veteran of World War II, and served as a flight surgeon with the rank of commander.

Dr. Marks was affiliated with Bradley Hospital, and served on the staff of Women & Infants Hospital, St. Joseph Hospital and Miriam Hospital. He was a member of the Rhode Island Medical Society and the American Academy of Pediatrics.

The Providence Medical Association presented him its first Community Service Award for a lifetime of dedication as medical director of the Center for Individualized Training and Education, and for his work with the Salvation Army Day Care Center, the Women's Center at Fox Point, the Roger Williams Day Care Center and other services to the community.

He was coordinator of medical consultants for Headstart.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Judith Hershon of Old Westbury, Long Island, N.Y.; two sons, Joel Marks of Norwood, Mass., and Allan Marks in Virginia; a brother, Leo Marks, and a sister, Madeline Gurwitz, both of Pawtucket, and two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. PJB 6-4-1992
