MARKS, Dr. Milton

RIHER 7-13-00

DR. MILTON MARKS

PAWTUCKET — Dr. Milton Marks, 87, of Edgemere Road, a retired dentist, died July 4 at Memorial Hospital of Rhode Island.

He was the husband of Ruth (Rosner) Marks. Born in Warren, a son of the late Nathan and Eva (Mistofsky) Marks, he was a lifelong resident of Pawtucket.

He worked at the Joseph Samuels Dental Clinic and was a volunteer on the staff of the Rhode Island Hospital Dental Clinic. He maintained a private practice until his retirement, in 1996.

He received his D.D.S. degree from Temple University Dental School in Philadelphia, after completing undergraduate work at Roanoke (Va.) College.

He was a naval reserve officer in the Dental Corps during World War II, serving in the continental United States, Hawaii and Okinawa.

He was a member of the American Dental Association and the Rhode Island Dental Association.

He was a member of Congregation Ohawe Sholam and the Washington Lodge of the Masons in Warren. He was a supporter of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island and many other charities.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Eric Spencer Marks of Rockville, Md., and Ira Hugh Marks of Falls Church, Va., and three grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Joseph, Charles, Morris, Israel, Irving and Raymond Marks, Anna Portnoy and Rosé Brown.

The funeral was held July 6 at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Arrangements were made by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel.