DR. MORRIS MARKS
OBITUARY

The Evening Bulletin
Thursday, October 3, 1974

Dr. Morris Marks

Physician Practiced In Pawtucket 45 Years

PAWTUCKET — Dr. Morris Marks, 74, of 381 Armistice Blvd., a physician here for 45 years, died today at The Memorial Hospital in Pawtucket after a brief illness. He was the husband of Anna (Cantor) Marks.

Dr. Marks was a graduate of the Medical College of Virginia. He was a member of the Rhode Island Medical Association and the Pawtucket Medical Association. He was on the staff of The Miriam Hospital and The Memorial Hospital.

He was a Mason and a member of the Palestine Temple of the Shrine. He was a member of the Congregation Ohawe Sholom in Pawtucket.

Born in Warren on Aug. 8, 1900, he was a son of the late Nathan and Eva (Mistosky) Marks. He has been a Pawtucket resident for more than 45 years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Zexter of Providence; six brothers, Dr. Joseph Marks of Saylesville, Charles Marks of Warren, Israel Marks of Fall River, Irving Marks of Providence, Raymond Marks of Central Falls and Dr. Milton Marks of Pawtucket; a sister, Mrs. Rose Brown of Pawtucket, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. from the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence, with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

MARKS, DR. MORRIS

10-11-74

DR. MORRIS MARKS

Funeral services for Dr. Morris Marks, 74, of 381 Armistice Boulevard, Pawtucket, who died October 3, were held the following day at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Dr. Marks was a physician in Pawtucket for 45 years before his recent illness. He was the husband of Anna (Cantor) Marks.

He was a graduate of the Medical College of Virginia. A member of the Rhode Island Medical Association and the Pawtucket Medical Association, he was on the staff of The Miriam Hospital and the Memorial Hospital.

He was a Mason and a member of the Palestine Temple of the Shrine. He was also a member of Congregation Ohawe Shalom.

Born in Warren on August 9, 1900 he was a son of the late Nathan and Eva (Mistosky) Marks. He had been a Pawtucket resident for more than 45 years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Eleanor Zexter of Providence; six brothers, Dr. Joseph Marks of Saylesville, Charles Marks of Warren, Israel Marks of Fall River, Massachusetts; Irving Marks of Providence; Raymond Marks of Central Fall and Dr. Milton Marks of Pawtucket; a sister, Rose Brown of Pawtucket, and two grandchildren.

MARKS, DR. MORRIS