Dr. Daniel

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL-BULLETIN

DR. DANIEL MASSOUDA, 69, of South Pasadena, Fla., gynecologist and former director of the abortion unit at Providence Lying-In Hospital, now Women & Infants Hospital, and a senior partner of Ob-Gyn of Providence, died Sunday while vacationing in France. He was the husband of Margarite M. Massouda of South Pasadena.

Dr. Massouda practiced medicine in Rhode Island from 1958 to 1983, and was a member of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

While living in Providence, he was an associate professor at Brown University and the Tufts Medical School in Boston, and from 1983 to 1991 was professor of gynecology at the University of Tennessee Medical School in Memphis. From 1991 to 1994 he was head of the gynecology unit at Bay Pines Veterans Medical Center in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Born in Cairo, Egypt, he was a son of the late Dr. Giacomo Massouda, and Claire Massouda.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Daniel J. Massouda of St. Petersburg; two daughters, Claire M. McGirr of Portola Hills, Calif., and Suzanne Allie of Plant City, Fla.; two brothers, Dr. Benjamin Massouda and Tito Massouda, both of Toronto; four sisters Nellie Lichaa and Aimee Lichaa, both of Providence, Vivi Anhang and Hosna Gelfand, both of Toronto, and five grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held in Florida on Friday.
