OBITUARIES

Jerome Matzner

NORTH PROVIDENCE — Jerome "Jerry" Matzner, 66, of Canterbury Village Apartments, 79 Ivan St., a businessman, died at home yesterday. He was the husband of Adrienne (Buzzerio) Matzner.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Henry and Rose (Donath) Matzner. He moved to North Providence six years ago.

Mr. Matzner was in the plumbing and heating business for more than 40 years, and owned the B & J Matzner Plumbing & Heating Co. since 1977. He also owned BJ's Coin Laundromat since 1980.

He was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II. He was a staff sergeant in the 29th Bombing Squardron, and served in both the Atlantic and Pacfic Theaters. He was a member of Congregation Sons of Jacob, and the Crestwood Country Club.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Jerilyn Thibodeau of Coventry, Robin Greene of Warwick and Lauren Jessop of Plainfield, Conn.; four sisters, Matilda Moskol of East Providence, Jeanette Dunn of Woonsocket, Stella Ceader of Warwick and Lillian Zurier of Passaic, N.J.; two brothers, Joseph Matzner of North Providence and William Matzner of Providence, and six grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Pawtuxet Memorial Park, Warwick.
