FB 6-17-87

Abraham Mayberg

Long-time businessman associated with companies in 3 states, at 97

PROVIDENCE — Abraham Mayberg, 97, a resident of the Jewish Home for the Aged, a retired businessman, died today at the home. He was the husband of the late Lillian (Strasmich) Mayberg.

Mr. Mayberg owned R.I. Cord Company, was a partner in United Cole Co., Sterling Cole Co., and was proprietor of Metropolitan Cole Co. He was a partner of Adelmay Realty Corp. and the Palace Theater in Norwich Conn.

In the 1920s he was a partner of the former Hillsgrove area club known as the Hollywood Inn. In the 1940s, he was proprietor of Berry's Furniture Store, formerly located on Weybosset Street, and of Mayberg Manufacturing Co. in Plainville Mass.

Born in Russia, he was a son of the late Jacob C. and Clara (Bronfman) Mayberg. He had been a Providence resident since 1903.

He was an Army veteran of World War I, and was a member of Jewish War Veterans Post No. 23.

Mr. Mayberg was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Providence Fraternal Association, the Majestic Senior Guild, the Jewish Community Center Senior Citizens and the Charlesgate Senior Citizens.

He leaves three daughters, Arlene Young of Cranston, Joyce Miller of Warwick and Lois Seidenberg of East Brunswick, N.J., four grandchildren and a great-grandson.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemtery, Warwick.

MAYBERG, ABRAHAM