MISCELLAN
OBITUAR
NOTICE

B-3 The Evening Bulletin
Thursday, Feb. 13, 1975

Benjamin Mayberg

Founder of Sterling Coal Lived in Prov. 50 Years

PROVIDENCE — Benjamin Mayberg, of 108 Burlington St. founder and owner of the former Sterling Coal Co., died today in the Miriam Hospital after an illness of two years. He was the husband of Freda (Shaulson) Mayberg.

He was a member of the Congregation Mishkon Tfiloh and Congregation Sons of Zion, a member of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association and Chevrah Kadisha of Providence.

He was born in Russia, a son of the late Jacob and Clara Mayberg. He had lived in Providence more than 50 years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, Morton Mayberg of Miami Beach; three daughters, Mrs. Sessile Winograd of Providence, Mrs. Raynah King of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Shirley Weinreb of South Fallsburg, N.Y.; one brother, Abraham Mayberg of Providence; two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Reuter of Providence and Mrs. Rose Tubman of Miami Beach, and 19 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

MAYBERG, BENJAMIN