Harriet G. Mayerson

Had owned two secreterial, typing service enterprises

EAST PROVIDENCE — Harriet G. Mayerson, 81, of 49 Manning Dr., owner of Independent Secretary Service and Quality Typing Services for many years, died Sunday in Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Mayer Mayerson.

Born in St. Louis, Mo., a daughter of the late Harry and Jennie (Ettman) Gradwohl, she had lived in East Providence 30 years, previously residing in Woonsocket.

Mrs. Mayerson had also worked for the FBI in St. Louis.

She was instrumental in getting school nurses into the Woonsocket School System.

She served as president of the Rhode Island Girl Scout Council, Woonsocket Ladies Aid, Woonsocket Hadassah and Woonsocket Jr. High School PTA. She was a member of the League of Women Voters.

She leaves two daughters, Jane L. Mayerson of Little Compton and Marjorie Zarum of Warwick; and two grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in Swan Point Cemetery Chapel, 585 Blackstone Blvd., Providence.

MAYERSON, Harriet G. (Gradwohl)

May 5, 1991. Wife of the late Mayer Mayerson. Mother of Jane L. Mayerson and Marjorie Zarum. Residence: Manning Drive, East Providence. Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Service on Thursday at 3:30 at the Swan Point Cemetery Chapel, 585 Blackstone Blvd., Providence. Arrangements by The Perry-McStay Home.

MAYERSON, Harriet G.