McGARRY,
DORIS SHEILA
(HOROWITZ)

PSJ
6-17-07

CUMBERLAND

McGARRY, DORIS SHEILA, age 83, of Lincoln, RI died on Saturday, June 16, 2007 of a brief illness. She was the wife of Robert J. McGarry for the past 37 years and previously of the late Benjamin Viner.

Born in Paterson, New Jersey, she was the daughter of Isaac and Ruth (Laurie) Horowitz. A resident of Lincoln RI for 37 years, she was the office manager of Providence-based Tillinghast Collins & Graham.

She leaves two children, Aron Viner of Rowley, Massachusetts and Samara Viner-Brown of Cumberland and her husband, Peter Viner-Brown. She was the loving grandmother of Max and Chloe Viner of Rowley and Tristan Viner-Brown of Cumberland.

She founded the Community Counseling Center of which she was president for 13 years and subsequently Chairman of the Board. In addition, she was a past vice president of the Rhode Island Council of Community Mental Health Centers, a member of the Board of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association, member of the Board of Trustees of Temple Emanu-El, member of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Community Center of Rhode Island, past president of Hadassah, and a former State President of the League of Women Voters of Rhode Island. She was the first recipient of the Doris S. McGarry Award for Leadership given annually by the Community Counseling Center and most recently recipient of the recognition award of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association.

Funeral services will be held on Monday at Temple Emanu-El, Providence at 11:30 AM. Burial will be at the Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Rhode Island (www.lls.org).