LESLEY LUNIN MEHLMAN, 66, of 3 Hanley Farm Rd., a retired Latin teacher, died yesterday at the Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

She was the wife of Dr. Edwin S. Mehlman. They were married for 44 years. Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Louis and Marion (Rosenblatt) Lunin, she had lived in Barrington for 34 years before moving to Warren in 1999.

Mrs. Mehlman had taught Latin in Pennsauken, N.J., for two years and in Hampton, Va., for a year. In 1980, she worked part-time teaching religious education at Temple Habonim in Barrington and developed an outreach program for the elderly at Jewish Family Services of Rhode Island. She returned to teaching Latin for a year in Lincoln, then for 14 years in East Greenwich.

She was a graduate of Mount Holyoke College, summa cum laude, and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

She was a member of Temple Habonim and served as president of its Sisterhood and editor of its cookbook, Butterfingers.

Mrs. Mehlman was an adviser to the East Greenwich High School Honor Society. She served on the Board of Jewish Family Services of Rhode Island. She was a member of Hadassah, the National Council of Jewish Women, Miriam Hospital Women's Association, and the Rhode Island Jewish Historical Society.

Besides her husband, she leaves three sons, Jeffrey C. Mehlman of North Andover, Mass., Brian S. Mehlman of Rollinsford, N.H., and Erik V. Mehlman of Raleigh, N.C.; two sisters, Jane Lunin Perel of Warwick and Andrea Sigurdsson of Cambridge, Mass.; and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Habonim, 165 New Meadow Rd., Barrington. Burial will be in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.
