Meierovitz, Wolfe E.

Providence Evening Bulletin, Friday, April 27, 1973

W. E. Meierovitz

Wolfe E. Meierovitz, 64, of 15 Mumford Ave., Newport, a lifelong city resident and former storeowner on Broadway and on Thames Street in Newport, died yesterday at Newport Hospital after a brief illness.

He was the husband of Mrs. Mollie (Anapol) Meierovitz. Born in Newport on March 14, 1909, he was a son of the late Samuel and Cecelia Meierovitz.

Mr. Meierovitz operated naval supply stores in the city for about 25 years. A member of Touro Synagogue in Newport, he served as president of the synagogue's B'nai B'rith chapter in 1940. He also was a life member of the Kiwanis Club, belonged to the Elks Club and Alasas Achim organization, all in Newport.

Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Judith Fox of Marblehead, Mass. and Mrs. Joan Levine of Frederickton, New Brunswick, Canada; five sisters, Mrs. Hyman Siegel of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Miss Mollie and Miss Bertha Meierovitz, Mrs. Sarah Berman and Mrs. Seymour Davis, all of Newport and three grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at noon at the Jewish Memorial Chapel on Fowler Avenue in Newport. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery in Middletown.

MEIEROVITZ, Wolfe