PROVIDENCE — Max E. Meller, 72, of 273 President Ave., president of the Adolf Meller Co., for more than 40 years, a firm founded by his father, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Dorothy (Kelman) Meller.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Adolf and Rosa Marie Meller.

Mr. Meller was a Coast Guard veteran of World War II. For 25 years he was an active supporter of the Rhode Island chapter of the American Cancer Society, and for two years he was chairman of the United Fund, now the United Way. For eight years he was president of the Rhode Island Zoological Society. He was a past president of the Palmer River Riding Club, Rehoboth, and a member of the Turks Head Club. He had been a member of the Board of Park Commissioners.

Besides his wife he leaves three daughters, Meredith M. Preble, Lindsay Lydon, both of Narragansett, and Carolyn MacNeil of Newton, Mass.; two sisters, Fannie M. Shore of Providence, Pauline M. Berger of Miami, Fla., and four grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

MELLER, MAX E.
