DR. YOUSSEF M. MENASHA

Funeral services for Dr. Youssef M. Menasha, 57, of 36 Burlington Street, who died suddenly on Tuesday, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. Dr. Menasha, an anesthesiologist at the Rhode Island Medical Center and Providence police surgeon, was found undonscious at Angell and Benefit Streets where he was stricken with an acute heart attack apparently while on his way to testify in district court.

Dr. Menasha came to Providence in 1962, and had first served on the staff of Miriam Hospital.

Born in August of 1909 in Cairo, Egypt, he was a graduate of the University of Cairo and its medical school, and had been a physician there until leaving for this country.

His parents were the late Moussa and Marietta (Kamar) Menasha.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Regine (Levy) Menasha, he is survived by two sons, Moussa and Samy Menasha, and three daughters, the Misses Marie, Louise and Nevine Menasha, all at home; two brothers, Abraham Menasha of Providence and David Menasha of Israel, and seven sisters, Mrs. Louise Wigderson of Maywood, Calif., Mrs. Rachel Marzorik, Mrs. Regina Kodsi, Mrs. Aziza Licha, Miss Soltana Menasha and Mrs. Zomorida Mazliah, all of Israel, and Mrs. Josephine Licha of Paris, France.
