HARVEY CASE MENCOFF, 70, of Slater Avenue, owner and operator of the former Advanced Textile Co., Providence, for many years, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Margot (Berson) Mencoff.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Samuel and Pauline (Greenstein) Mencoff, he was a lifelong resident of the city.

He was a graduate of Cheshire (Conn.) Academy, and attended the University of Miami.

Mr. Mencoff was a Navy veteran of the Korean War and served in the submarine service. He was a member of Ledgemont Country Club, Seekonk, a life member of the Disabled American Veterans and a member of the Providence County Kennel Club, where he served on the board for many years. Mr. Mencoff was also involved in the real estate business.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Samuel M. Mencoff of Chicago, and Gregory S. Mencoff of Boston; and three grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoin Park Cemetery, Warwick.
