MENDELOVITZ, Bella

Providence 6-2002

BELLA MENDELOVITZ, 95, of 75 East St., honored for her volunteer work, died yesterday at Tockwotton Home.

She was the wife of the late Benjamin Mendelovitz. Born in Malden, Mass., a daughter of the late Philip and Fanny (Rosensweet) Shuman, she had been a resident of Providence and Cranston for most of her life.

Mrs. Mendelovitz was a member of Temple Emanu-El, a life member of Hadassah, Pioneer Women, Mizrachi Women's Association, Miriam Hospital Women's Association, and the former Jewish Home for the Aged.

She received the Governor's Award for her dedication as a nursing home volunteer, and the Light of Torah Award from the Women's League of Conservative Judaism.

She leaves a son, Sam Mendelowitz of Cranston; a daughter, Harriett Frank of Pawtucket; and four grandchildren, and a great-granddaughter. She was the mother of the late Myron D. Mendelovitz and Harvey N. Mendelowitz, and the sister of the late Mary Levine, Jennie Marder, George Shuman and her twin sister, Rose Decker.

The funeral will be today at 1:30 p.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
