OBITUARIES

Benjamin Mendelovitz

PAWTUCKET — Benjamin Mendelovitz, 83, of 21 Trenton St., formerly of Providence and Cranston, a mortician associated with the Max Sugarman Funeral Home of Providence for more than 50 years and with the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel of Providence for the last 10 years, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Bella (Shuman) Mendelovitz.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Meyer and Anna (Berson) Mendelovitz. He had lived in Providence most of his life, moving to Cranston in 1960, and then to Pawtucket in 1986.

Mr. Mendelovitz was a member of Temple Emanu-El and the South Providence and Providence Hebrew Free Loan Associations. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association and was a Hadassah associate. He was a member of the Cranston, Majestic and Warwick Senior Guilds.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Sam Mendelowitz of Cranston; a daughter, Harriet Frank of Pawtucket; and four grandchildren.

The funeral service was to be held today at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was to be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
