Alvin H. Mendelsohn

CRANSTON — Alvin H. Mendelsohn, 60, of 59 Cliffside Drive, a life insurance agent for many years before retiring, died unexpectedly Thursday at his home. He was the husband of Frances (Leitner) Mendelsohn.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Louis and Irene (Fischer) Mendelsohn, Mr. Mendelsohn had been a Cranston resident since 1969. He previously resided in Providence.

Mr. Mendelsohn was a Navy veteran of World War II.

He was a member of Touro Fraternal Association and the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

He attended the University of Rhode Island.

Besides his wife, Mr. Mendelsohn leaves two daughters, Barbara Mendelsohn of Parsippany, N.J., and Marion Freedman of Kendall, Fla.; two sons, Dr. Robert Mendelsohn of Providence and Louis Mendelsohn of Tampa, Fla.; a brother, Morton Mendelsohn of Buffalo, N.Y. and three grandchildren.

Graveside services were held yesterday at Lincon Park Cemetery, Warwick.
