MENDELSTEIN
IDA

2-12-00

IDA MENDELSTEIN, 83, of 101 Plain St., died Thursday at Philip Hulitar Hospice Center.

She was the wife of the late Isadore Mendelstein. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Harry and Golda (Glassoff) Goodman, she had lived in Miami Beach, Fla., for many years before returning to Providence.

She leaves three brothers, Hyman Goodman of Providence, Maurice Goodman of Falls Church, Va., and David Goodman of Cocoa Creek, Fla., and a sister, Sophie Tebrow of Providence. She was the mother of the late Dorothy Mendelstein and sister of the late Louis Goodman and Clara Spader.

A graveside funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

MENDELSTEIN, Ida (Goodman)

February 10, 2000. Residence: 101 Plain St., Providence. Beloved wife of the late Isadore Mendelstein. Devoted mother of the late Dorothy Mendelstein. Dear sister of Hyman Goodman and Sophie Tebrow, both of Providence; Maurice Goodman of Falls Church, VA; David Goodman of Coconut Creek, FL; and the late Louis Goodman and Clara Spader. Graveside Funeral Service Sunday at 10 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Lincoln Park Cemetery. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mrs. Sophie Tebrow, 50 Randall St., #8E, Providence, Sunday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.