David Meyers, 85, founder of parking system, dies

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — David Meyers, 85, of 4350 Hillcrest Drive died yesterday at Hollywood Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Anna (Chackmaster) Meyers.

Born in Union City, N.J., a son of the late Joseph and Esther (Schwartzbard) Meyers, he lived in Providence from 1931 until moving to Florida in 1978.

Mr. Meyers was founder of the Meyers Brothers Parking System in 1922, and was in charge until 1967 when it was sold to the Hertz Car Rental Co. The firm had parking locations throughout major cities in the United States, Puerto Rico, and England.

He was a founder and a director of the National Parking Association. He was a member of the board of the Providence Boys Club, the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, and a former member of its board of directors. He was a member of the board of AAA of Rhode Island, and had been an honorary board member of Temple Emanu-El. He was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Miriam Hospital, and the Jewish Community Center. He was a member of the Rotary Club, and in Hollywood, a member of Temple Solel.

Besides his wife he leaves four sons, Charles S. Meyers of Providence, William M. Meyers of New York, Leonard R. Meyers of Fairfield, Conn., and Victor M. Meyers of Hudson, N.Y.; two brothers, Irving Meyers of Hollywood, and Louis Meyers of West Palm Beach; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He was brother of the late Doris Weissman, Julius, William, and Nathan Meyers.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
