BERTHA MEZOFF, 86, of Calla Street, a teacher in the Providence public school system for 15 years before retiring in 1972, died Saturday at the Kent Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in Warwick. She was the widow of Milton Mezoff.

Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Abraham and Ida (Young) Factoroff, she lived in Providence since 1957.

Mrs. Mezoff was a 1931 graduate of Boston University. She was a founder of the Washington Park Community Center, and a volunteer for many years until recent illness. She was a member of the Rhode Island and Warwick Retired Teachers Associations, and a charter member of the Social Seniors of Warwick. She received an award for many years of service to the RSVP. She was a member of Temple Am David and served on its religious committee. For three years, she was a daily literacy volunteer at the Washington Park Library.

She leaves a sister, Mildred Pivnick of West Warwick. She was the sister of the late Henry, Allich and Morris Factoroff.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick. Burial will follow.
