Daniel Miller

EAST PROVIDENCE — Daniel Miller of 300 East Shore Circle, an executive for the former Brier Jewelry Manufacturing Co. for 50 years before retiring in 1974, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Rose (Shore) Miller.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Morris and Freida (Pastaer) Miller. He moved to East Providence 14 years ago.

Mr. Miller attended Northeastern University. He was an Army veteran of World War II. He had been a consultant for the B.B. Greenberg Jewelry Manufacturers Co.

He was a member of the Manufacturing Jewelers and Silversmiths of America, the Temple Emanu-El Men's Club, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Miriam Hospital Association and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association. Mr. Miller was a member of Redwood Lodge, F&AM, and was recently honored as a 50-year member.

In 1965, the People to People Organization of Rhode Island recognized him for supporting international sport activities as a means of fostering brotherhood.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Donald E. Miller of Barrington; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral was to be held today at 2 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
