MILLER, DAVID

OJB 10-21-04

DAVID MILLER, 56, of Doyle Avenue, a former hardware store owner, died Sunday at Miriam Hospital.

Born in Johannesburg, South Africa, a son of the late Louis and Yettie (Fox) Miller, he had lived in the United States for 26 years, residing in Providence for about 15 years.

Mr. Miller was the former owner of Wooden World, a hardware store in Johannesburg, and continued in that line of work in this country.

He was educated at King Edward School, Johannesburg.

Mr. Miller prayed on a daily basis at either Congregation Sons of Jacob Synagogue or Congregation Mishkon Tfiloh.

He leaves his twin children, Carla and Gregory Miller, both of Boston; two brothers, Michael Miller of Providence and Basil Miller of Johannesburg; and a sister, Barbara Bloom of Bayshore, N.Y.

A graveside service was held Monday at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
