WEST WARWICK

MILLER, ESTELLE (SILK), 85, of West Warwick, died August 23, 2005 at Riverview Health Care Community, Coventry. She was the wife of the late Saul Miller.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Jacob and Minnie (Sossin) Silk, she lived in Fall River for over 20 years before moving to the Providence/Warwick area, and moving to West Warwick in 1995.

Mrs. Miller was a past president of the Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary, and an active volunteer at the Veterans Medical Center. She was the program director for the Social Seniors of Warwick for 25 years. Mrs. Miller was a volunteer worker and driver for In-sight, the Association for the Blind, and the National Federation of the Blind. She was a Friendly Visitor of the Retired Seniors Volunteer Program and a former member of the Blind Veterans.

Mrs. Miller played the piano while her late husband sang to entertain residents at various nursing homes. She was a former member of Temple Am David, a member of the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, and a member of the Chabad Chai Center of Warwick.

She leaves one daughter; Ellen M. Duchesneau of West Warwick, two sons; Joel J. Miller of Georgia and Larry S. Miller of Greenville, seven grandchildren; Eric, Jennifer, Michele, David, Andrea, Allison and Courtney, and six great-grandchildren; Salena, Kiel, Stefan, Thomas, Nadine and Nate. She was the sister of the late Nathan Silk and Nettie Weiser.

A graveside service will be held TODAY at 2:00 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Chabad Chai Center of Warwick, 3871 Post Road, Warwick, RI 02886. Shiva will be observed at the home of Ellen Duchesneau, 88 Summit Ave., West Warwick, Thurs 7-9, Fri 2-4, and Sun-Tues 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
