JEANNE R. MILLER

Funeral services for Jeanne R. Miller, 59, of 86 Cambria Court, Pawtucket, who died August 17 after an illness of 18 months, were held the following day at Temple Beth El. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The wife of Charles H. Miller, she was born in Providence on January 26, 1919, a daughter of Harrie (Smira) Max of Providence and the late Theodore Max. She had moved to Pawtucket in 1951.

Mrs. Miller was the librarian at Shea Senior High School since 1971. She was a 1939 graduate of Pembroke College, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She later graduated from the University of Rhode Island School of Library Science.

She was a member of Temple Beth El and the Pawtucket-Central Falls Chapter of Hadassah. She was a past president of the local chapter of the League of Women Voters, and life member of The Miriam Hospital Women's Association and the Brandeis Univeristy Women's Association.

From 1942 to 1945, while a lieutenant in the Navy, she was assigned to the staff of the chief of naval operations.

Besides her husband and mother, she leaves a son, Harvey T. Miller and a daughter, Elizabeth A. Miller, both of Pawtucket.
