NATALIE B. MILLER, 78, of 47 Bloomer Rd., North Salem, N.Y., a school teacher in Rhode Island for many years, died yesterday at home. She was the wife of the late Jacob Miller.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Charles and Anne (Rosen) Rouslin, she lived in Providence for most of her life before moving to North Salem in 1992.

Mrs. Miller was a graduate of Brown University. She taught adult education and adult literacy in Providence.

She was a former member of Temple Beth-El and Temple Emanu-El, and a life member of Hadassah, and the Jewish Home for Aged. She was a member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island.

She leaves a daughter, Andrea White, with whom she lived; a son, Philip Miller of Marlboro, N.J.; two sisters, Muriel Yoken of Providence and Thelma Isenberg of Denver, Colo.; and three grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at noon in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Burial will follow.
