NORMAN H. MILLER, 84, of Honeysuckle Road, a retired business owner, died yesterday at Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Frances (Goldin) Miller. Born in Attleboro, a son of the late Samuel Aaron and Rachel Leah (Kaufman) Miller, he grew up in Providence and had lived in Warwick since 1953, wintering for the last 13 years in Delray Beach, Fla.

He was the co-owner of the former Miller's Supermarket, Pawtucket, a business founded by his father, and operated by Mr. Miller and his brothers for more than 50 years.

He was a member of Rhode Island Grocer's Association, a member and past commander of Jewish War Veterans Post 369, and a member of Knights of Pythias and its bowling league. He was also a member of the William Gates Cutler Olympic Club for 75 years.

Mr. Miller served as a medic in the Army during World War II in the South Pacific and New Guinea.

He was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Brotherhood, and a graduate of Hope High School.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Stanley A. Miller of Cranston and Richard A. Miller of Wakefield; a daughter, Randi S. Miller of Warwick; a brother, Max Miller of East Providence; and three grandchildren. He was the father of the late Peter Jeffrey Miller, and brother of the late Jacob, Saul and Morris Miller.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. from Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Providence.
