Herman Mines

LAKELAND, Fla. — Herman Mines, 97, of the Meridian Nursing Center, founder and owner of the former Herman Mines Store from 1916 to 1981, died Saturday at Lakeland Regional Hospital. He was the husband of the late Rose (Gluckman) Mines.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Morris and Annie (Levine) Mines, he lived in Newport for 67 years before moving to Lakeland seven years ago. Mr. Mines was a member of Touro Synagogue, Newport, and had been a former member of its board of directors. He was a founder of the Hotel Viking, Newport. He was a charter and honorary member of the Wanumetonomy Golf Club, Middletown.

He leaves two daughters, Evelyn "Pat" Dorkin of Portsmouth and Marjory Packer of Fall River; a son, Lester Mines of Lakeland; two sisters, Ida Pearlman of Providence and Lillian Goldstein of Fall River; four grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

A graveside service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown.

PJ - B - 10/21/84

MINES, HERMAN