MISCH, RICHARD

WARREN

MISCH, RICHARD

87, of Warren, died on November 10th after a short illness. Mr. Misch was born in Providence, and was the son of the late Walter P. and Ruth (Greene) Misch.

He was the president of S.M. White & Son, Inc. of Lincoln until his retirement. Mr. Misch was a former Chairman of The Board of The Memorial Hospital in Pawtucket, and was an active member of the Pawtucket Rotary Club. He was a former chairman of the Blackstone Valley March of Dimes, a Vice President and Board Member of the Blackstone Valley Chamber of Commerce, a board member of the Pawtucket Health Center and the Pawtucket Boys Club, and a past president of the New England chapter of the National Association of Master Metal Finishers. He was a member of Redwood Lodge Number 35 in Providence. He was an active supporter of the Central Falls Little League, for which he provided a ball field for many years.

Mr. Misch is survived by his wife, Dolly, of Warren, a son, Gary, and daughter in law, Rabbi Rose Lyn Jacob of Syria, Virginia, a daughter, Judy (Misch) Keseberg and son in law Wayne Keseberg, of Sudbury, Massachusetts, two grandchildren, Joanna (Keseberg) Welch, of Brighton, Massachusetts, and Jonathan Keseberg of Braintree, Massachusetts.

Shiva will be private. Funeral service will be on November 12, at 11:00 AM, in the chapel at the Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.