Samuel Mistofsky

PROVIDENCE — Samuel Mistofsky, 98, of 160 Benedict St., owner of the former Ace High Trucking Co. before retiring 30 years ago, died yesterday at Waterman Heights Nursing Home, Smithfield. He was the husband of the late Rose (Greenberg) Mistofsky.

Born in North Scituate, a son of the late Barnett and Rachel Mistofsky, he moved to Providence as a child.

In his early years, Mr. Mistofsky was a cattle farmer in North Scituate. For many years he was an auctioneer.

He leaves two daughters, Frances Miller of Cranston, and Muriel Czwartacky of Sunrise, Fla.; six grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren. He was father of the late Martin Mistofsky.

A graveside service was to be held today at 2 p.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
