MISTOWSKY, Lillian

Lillian Mistowsky

PROVIDENCE — Lillian "Winnie" Mistowsky, 91, a resident of Hallworth House, 66 Benefit St., died at home yesterday. She was the wife of the late Samuel Mistowsky.

Born in the Ukraine, a daughter of the late David and Evelyn Winn, she immigrated to Boston as a child before settling in Providence.

She was a fund-raiser for many charitable organizations, including the United Fund, the United Jewish Appeal, the American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society and the March of Dimes.

She was a member of Hadassah, the Women's Association of Miriam Hospital and a volunteer in the admissions office of the hospital. She was a member and a national conductress of the Women's Auxiliary of the Jewish War Veterans of America. She had been a member of the former Temple Beth Israel and its sisterhood. In 1977 she was a recipient of a recognition award from the American Heart Association for more than 20 years of service.

She leaves two daughters, Lenore Rose of Providence and Natalie Rothberg of Holliston, Mass.; a sister, Shirley Mann of Miami Beach, Fla.; and three grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
