MONZACK
Joseph

JOSEPH MONZACK

Funeral services for Joseph Monzack, 68, husband of Katie (Cohen) Monzack, of 112 Porter street, who died on Tuesday, August 5, following a long illness, were held that afternoon from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home. Rabbi Morris G. Silk officiated, and burial was at Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Monzack, who retired three years ago from the Joseph Monzack & Sons Ornamental and Iron Works, had previously owned and operated the Providence Cycle and Supply Company on South Main street. Born in Poland, he came to this country in 1902. He was a member and organizer of the South Providence Hebrew Congregation and the Congregation Sons of Abraham. He also held membership in the Rhode Island Fraternal Association.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Nathan and Eli Monzack; two daughters, Mrs. Alice Glantz and Mrs. Rebecca Goldberg, of this city, and seven grandchildren.