ANNE MOSHKOVITZ, 92, of 135 Tripps Lane, a retired shoe saleslady, died Wednesday at Orchard View Manor.

She was the wife of the late Solomon Moshkovitz. Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Jacob and Ida (Montach) Yablonsky, she had lived most of her life in Attleboro before moving to Cumberland and later to East Providence.

Mrs. Moshkovitz had been a sales clerk at the former Sillman Shoe Store, in Attleboro, for 16 years.

She was a former member of Congregation Agudas Achim, Attleboro.

She leaves a son, Herbert Moshkovitz of Needham Heights, Mass.; a daughter, Eleanor Jakeman of Rumford; a sister, Sylvia Smith of Phoenix, Ariz.; and three grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Louis, Isadore and Bill Yablonsky.

A graveside service will be held today at 12:30 p.m. in Dodgeville Cemetery, Attleboro.
