MOSKOVICH, ROSE

OBITUARY 1/16/34

Jewry of Newport was shocked this week at the death of one of its most active daughters, Mrs. Rose Moskovich. She was born in Russia and came here 45 years ago when only a girl. She started the Newport Chapter of Hadassah and served as its first president. She was an active member of the Ladies'Auxiliary of the Congregation Ahavas Achim and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Congregation Jeshuat Israel the oldest Jewish Congregation in America, and the Women's Republican Club of Newport County.

Mrs. Moskovich is survived by her husband, Philip, a Newport merchant for many years; 3 daughters, Lottie, of Atlanta, Ga., Edith of Providence, Esther (Mrs. Krasnow) of Providence; 2 sons, Harry, an attorney of N. Y. City and Mitchell, a student of Rogers High School, Newport. A brother, Leonard Zisman, a former Providence attorney and now with the U. S. Veterans Bureau in Washington; and 4 sisters, Mrs. Sema Davis, Mrs. Clara Zucker, and Mrs. Lena Fine, all of Providence and Mrs. Edith Garfinkel of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, January 14, and interment was in the Congregation Jeshuat Israel plot in the Braman Cemetery.

MOSKOVICH, ROSE