Jeanette Moss, 87

SEATTLE, Wash. — Jeanette Moss, 87, died Jan. 6. She was the wife of the late Morty Moss. They were married for 37 years. Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Annie Kaufman.

She was a 1935 graduate of Central High School.

She worked as a buyer for Pinkerson's, a women's clothing store in Providence.

After marrying, the couple moved to Floral Park and later to Elmont, N.Y., where they raised their family. She was a hat-check and hostess at a steak pub and later worked as "lab lady" at H. Frank Carey High School, all in Long Island.

Mrs. Moss also belonged to a group that entertained at local nursing homes and was an active member of the Elmont Jewish Center. She was a lifelong member of Hadassah and received many awards, including the Imah award, for service.

In 2001 she moved to Seattle to be near her daughter, where she enjoyed many activities at an independent living residence for Jewish seniors.

She leaves a son, HG Moss; a daughter, Robin, of Seattle; a grandson, Shaya; a granddaughter, Molly Rachel, and a brother, Eli. She was the sister of the late Martha.

Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Contributions may be made to Hadassah or Jewish Family Service.
