MOSSBERG, BEATRICE (ARON)

PJB 5-17-06

MOSSBERG, BEATRICE, 78, of Holburn Avenue, died Tuesday at the Tockwotton Home, Providence. She was the beloved wife of the late Irving Mossberg. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late William and Blanche (Abraams) Aron, she had lived in Cranston for 45 years.

Beatrice was a registered nurse anesthetist at Rhode Island Hospital for 38 years, retiring in 1989. She was a graduate of Roger Williams School of Nursing and received her anesthetist training at Yale Hospital.

Devoted mother of Paul Mossberg of Cranston and Rose Malkin and her husband David of Providence. Dear sister of Samuel Aron of Cranston, Edward Aron of Providence, Donald Aron of Florida and the late Jerry and Sylvia Aron. Loving grandmother of Sam and Jack Malkin.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Jewish Community Center of Rhode Island. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. And Mrs. David Malkin, 666 Blackstone Blvd., Providence, Wednesday 7-9, Thursday 2-4 & 7-9, Friday 2-4 p.m.