MUSHLIN, SAMUEL

MUSHLIN, SAMUEL 101, died on Memorial Day, May 28, 2012. Samuel Mushlin was a Mensch, with remarkable integrity, grace, and charity; he was the husband of the late Marcia Karp Mushlin. Born in Manchester, NH on Jan. 23, 1911, Samuel was the son of the late Myer Mushlin and Jennie Kramer.

He graduated from the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, and set up, owned and managed a pharmacy in Needham, MA. During WWII, he sold the business, entered the army, and served as a pharmacist and medic in major battles of the European, African, and Pacific theaters. He earned several medals, ribbons, commendations and an honorable discharge. After the war, he started and ran a successful business (New England X Ray, Inc) until his retirement nearly three decades ago. Samuel wrote a book on the Mushlin family and organized the first Mushlin family reunion. During his retirement, he lived at various locations including St Petersburg, FL, Brookline, MA, Canton, MA (Orchard Cove), Providence, RI (Laurelmeade), and most recently, Hallworth House (Providence, RI), where he had enjoyed attentive, compassionate care.

A graveside service will be held Thur. May 31, 2012 at 10:45am in Sharon Memorial Park, Dedham St., Sharon, MA. Donations may be made to a charity of your choice. For information and condolences visit, www.SugarmanSinai.com.
