ELEANOR ANNE MYERS, 80, of Hillside Avenue, an employee of the U.S. Postal Service until 1990, died Monday at the Philip Hulitar Hospice Center.

She was the wife of Michael Myers. Born in Minneapolis, Minn., a daughter of the late Isadore and Rose (Sadoff) Wexler, she had lived in Minnesota most of her life before moving to Providence last year.

Mrs. Myers was valedictorian of her high school class in Minneapolis, and received degrees in journalism and nursing from the University of Minnesota. She served as a 2nd lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps in Korea during World War II.

She was an avid golfer, swimmer, reader and student, who continued taking courses into her late 70s. She was a volunteer, and had tutored immigrant public school children, and served a short stint, at age 69, teaching in the Israeli Army. She was a member of the League of Women Voters, the Democratic Farm Laborers Party, the Jewish War Veterans, and the AAUW. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El in Providence.

Besides her husband, she leaves four daughters, Jane Myers and Kathryn de Boer, both of Providence, Jody Myers of Los Angeles, and Amy Sabrina of Dalbo, Minn.; a son, Paulo Cohen-Myers of Providence; a sister, Beverly Fink; two brothers, Mark Wexler and Harold Wexler, all of Minnesota; and eight grandchildren.

The funeral and burial will be held in Minnesota.
