NEMTZOW, mordecai

2-28-1941

MORDECAI NEMTZOW

Funeral services were held this week for Mordecai Nemtzow, 100 years old, who died late Monday night at the Jewish Home for Aged on Hillside avenue. His 96-year-old wife, Minnie, was at his bedside when he passed on.

Mr. Nemtzow had lived in czarist Russia 66 years before coming to the United States. He had spent 20 years of his life in Newport and had been a resident of the Home for the last 18 months. His 100th birthday was celebrated last December.

The centenarian was known as a Jewish scholar of the old school, and had retained his faculties to the end. He and his wife had planned to observe their 74th wedding anniversary next month.

Survivors besides his widow, include six children, Abraham, Morris and Harry Nemtzow of Newport; Meyer Nemtzow of Freehold, N. J.; Alex Nemtzow of Lakewood, N. J., and Mrs. Anna Cohen of Brooklyn, N. Y.