Dr. Benedict Olch

Providence Native, Brown Alumnus Dies en Route Here

Funeral services for Dr. Benedict Olch of Dayton, Ohio, formerly of this city, who died suddenly Saturday en route to Providence, will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Home, 458 Hope Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Dr. Olch, a graduate of Brown University in the Class of 1915, and of Harvard Medical School in 1919, was a diplomate in internal medicine. He was a member of the American College of Physicians.

Dr. Olch moved more than 30 years ago to Dayton, where he was on the board of Miami Valley, Good Samaritan and St. Elizabeth Hospitals. He was on the board of trustees of Miami Valley Hospital and the Dayton Art Museum.

He was a son of Mrs. Deborah Olch of 265 Slater Avenue, Providence, and the late Max Olch.

He leaves a widow, Reza (Sussman) Olch; his mother; a sister, Mrs. Joseph Webber of Providence; three brothers, Dr. I. Y. Olch of Los Angeles, Calif., Jacob B. Olch of Worcester and Capt. Isaih Olch, U.S.N., retired, of Nice, France.
